DETAILS:

For purposes of brevity the Los Angeles Sobell Committee will hereinafter be referred to as the LASC, and the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell will be referred to as the NCSJMS.

I. HEADQUARTERS

[REDACTED]

As of August 5, 1959, the headquarters of the LASC was located at Suite 3, 462 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

As of August 5, 1959, the Long Beach Chapter of the LASC maintained an address of Post Office Box 5053, North Long Beach Branch Post Office, 3800 Atlantic Avenue, Long Beach, California.

[REDACTED]

The Los Angeles Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell was formerly known as the Los Angeles Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case and was also referred to as the Los Angeles Rosenberg-Sobell Committee.

The Los Angeles Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case was cited by the Committee on Un-American Activities report dated August 25, 1956, pages 66 and 67, as "A local auxiliary of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case. 'Next to New York and Washington the area of greatest focus in the Rosenberg campaign was Los AngelesThe Los Angeles campaign was under the direction of SOPHIE DAVIDSON, Chairman of the Los Angeles Committee.'"

Informant advised that the Los Angeles Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell adopted that name in the fall of 1954. The avowed purpose of this committee is to secure the release of MORTON SOBELL from prison. Both the Los Angeles Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case and the Los Angeles Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell were from their inception dominated and controlled by the Communist Party (CP) through the assignment of CP members to direct the activities of the committees.

b2 [REDACTED]

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL were convicted in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, on a charge of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. The ROSENBERGs were sentenced to death on April 5, 1951, and MORTON SOBELL was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment on the same date. JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were legally executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953; and MORTON SOBELL is currently serving his sentence at the United States Penitentiary, Atlanta...

Appearing in the "People's World" (PW) of April 25, 1959, page 3, was an article announcing a special meeting of the LASC on April 28, 1959, to plan future activities, which meeting was to be held at 903 North Mariposa Street, Los Angeles. The article read in part that there would be at this meeting a report on "activities in behalf of Morton Sobell in Northwest, gleaned by Widge Newman on a recent visit to Vancouver, Seattle, and Portland".

The PW is a West Coast Communist newspaper.

Appearing in the PW of June 20, 1959, page 3, was an article captioned, "Regional Sobell Meet Next Weekend". The article reported the meeting was to "form a Western Regional organization that can better coordinate public activities in behalf of the release of Morton Sobell..." The article reported that the "High point of the convention..." would be a banquet on June 27, "when delegates from out of town will be honored by the Los Angeles Sobell committee..."

Appearing in "The Militant" (see appendix) of June 15, 1959, page 3, was an article which outlined recent efforts by Committees for MORTON SOBELL to obtain his release from prison. The article read in part as follows: "Public opinion is shifting in one of America's bitterest witch-hunt cases. As a result chances are improving for release of MORTON SOBELL, who was sentenced to 30 years as a 'spy'..." "But people from all walks of life are breaking through the hatred and are speaking out against this tragic violation of justice..."

On page 12, columns 1 and 2, of the "Morning Freiheit" (MF) (see appendix) of May 31, 1959, appeared an article captioned "An Encouraging Report", which concerned a report given by WIDGE NEWMAN (above) of the LASC regarding her trip through some of the Western States. The article read in part as follows: "Her report reveals interesting facts that a great number of outstanding people were badly informed about the great injustice being perpetrated against Sobell. These same people display profound, humane interest as soon as they are acquainted with the true facts, Miss Newman assures us in her detailed report".

Advertisements announcing "The first Sobell Regional Banquet" on June 27, 1959, "Auspices L.A. Sobell Committee, 462 North Western Avenue, L.A.", price $10.00 per person, appeared in the "National Guardian" (NG) (see appendix) newspapers of June 8, 1959, and June 15, 1959.

APPENDIX

CITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

A source advised on May 7, 1959 that the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms was organized in Los Angeles, California, in January, 1952, for the announced purpose of supporting a number of individuals from the medical and legal professions who had been subpoenaed to appear before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Since its establishment, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms, in extending its scope, has worked for the abolition of all Congressional, State, and local committees investigating subversive activities and in the latter part of 1954 became very active in opposition to State and Federal legislation directed at the Communist movement.

FRANK WILKINSON, Executive Secretary of the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms, is described by the informant as the "brains and energy" behind the organization.

The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms is not a membership organization. It is an Executive Board with a large mailing list which builds up support behind particular issues rather than behind an organizational program.

Another source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist party member as of September, 1952.

APPENDIX

JEWISH INFORMATION SERVICE (LOS ANGELES JEWISH CULTURAL AND FRATERNAL CLUBS; FRATERNAL MEDICAL PLAN OF THE CALIFORNIA
FRATERNAL SERVICE ASSOCIATION)

A source advised on May 7, 1959, that the Jewish Information Service was formed about January, 1954, in Los Angeles for the purpose of continuing "cultural" activity of the International Workers Order. Prior to March 4, 1956, the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs were identified as the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural Clubs, this group being formerly known as lodges of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order. The Jewish Information Service and the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs are currently active in the Los Angeles area.

The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association was formed about January, 1954, for the purpose of continuing the activity of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order Medical Plan. Since that date the functioning of the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association has been integrated into the operation of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs, inasmuch as the service provided by the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association.

~~The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California
Fraternal Service Association is currently active in the Los Angeles area.~~

The International Workers Order and the Jewish People's Fraternal Order have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The February, 1959, edition of "Mainstream," published monthly by "Masses and Mainstream" Incorporated, 832 Broadway, New York 3, New York, identified ANNETTE T. RUBINSTEIN as a contributing editor.

ECUA in its "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published January 2, 1957, Page 104, identified "Masses and Mainstream" as the successor to "New Masses," a Communist magazine. The ECUA bulletin stated the name of "Masses and Mainstream" was changed to "Mainstream" with the September, 1956, issue of this publication.

On August 10, 1959, [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised SA CASSIUS PATRICK that on [REDACTED]

On December 11, 1958, [REDACTED] made available to SA CLYDE POE SPITLER a leaflet which reflected that a dessert luncheon was to be held December 6, 1958, at the residence of CARL HAFSSLER, 39 Massachusetts Avenue, and was to be sponsored by the Detroit Committee for Morton Sobell. b7D

On August 26, 1959, [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised SA JAMES L. DALEY that formerly there was a Detroit Branch of the CSJMS, but to his knowledge this committee has not been active for six months. [REDACTED] stated that the primary purpose for this committee was to raise money; that it was composed primarily of female members of the SWP; that ROSEMARY DOLINSKI, wife of LARRY DOLINSKI, 134 Colorado, Highland Park, Michigan, was very active in this committee as well as BERTA ZUCKOFF, who has moved to New York City. b7D

The following Informants who are familiar with some phases of CP activity in the Detroit area, were contacted and could furnish no additional information concerning captioned committee:

The above constitutes the pertinent information available in the Detroit Office subsequent to the Detroit report dated September 11, 1958, pertaining to captioned committee. It appears there is a Detroit Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, but as indicated above it is inactive in Detroit. If information is received from New York which indicates further investigation is warranted in accordance with the provisions of Section 87² of the Manual of Instructions, the Bureau will be appropriately advised, and investigation instituted; otherwise no further investigation is being conducted at this time, UACB.

A postcard postmarked May 6, 1959, Phoenix, Arizona, made the following announcement:

"WAS MORTON SOBELL GUILTY?
AND IF SO, WHAT WAS HE GUILTY OF?

"Can you answer these two questions satisfactorily? If you can't then you will be interested in hearing Miss Widge Newman of the Los Angeles Sobell Committee discuss a man who many think was falsely accused and unjustly convicted of espionage. And if you can answer those questions, you will still be interested in hearing the latest results in attempts to free him.

[REDACTED] made available this letter for review in view of numerous names mentioned therein which may be of assistance in security investigations being conducted by this Bureau. It is noted this letter is dated 9/11/59, and was apparently written from Los Angeles, California. The contents of this letter contain the following pertinent excerpts: b7D

"We got a very exciting letter from New York saying that STEVE ALLEN had ordered 100 copies of our reprint containing the statement by Dr. PAUL LERTMAN entitled 'MORTON SOBELL, Symbol of the Christian's concern for Justice'. I had called his secretary that very morning in an effort to arrange an appointment because we knew of his previous interest, and I'm to call him back Monday when STEVE ALLEN will be in town."

ROSA LEE INGRAM, and her two sons convicted of murdering a white tenant family in Georgia who were sentenced to death in the electric chair, and which sentence was later commuted to life in prison. They were paroled on 8/28/59 by Georgia State authorities. The INGRAMS were the subject of various protest marches originating in subversive circles in New York City several years ago.

Mrs. SOBELL indicated she would be leaving Los Angeles for Phoenix on the 17th of September, 1959, and will be back in Los Angeles on the 20th because it is a lot easier to travel from Los Angeles to New York, than from Phoenix to New York.

HELEN SOBELL mentions having an appointment with one JOHN WEXLEY on 9/12/59.

On 9/15/59, [REDACTED] USP, Atlanta, also made available copy of letter dated 9/1/59 from HELEN SOBELL addressed to her husband. The contents of this letter are set forth verbatim hereinafter: b7D

"Tues. Sept. 1, 1959
6:30 P.M. #43

"My own dearest MORTY,

"Yesterday was a long day in San Diego and we did many things. I met with a group of ministers and they are going to invite all of the clergymen in the area to join with them. I also had dinner with the USEYS who sent their warmest regards and were wonderfully hospitable. It was a real pleasure to see them again. In the evening we had a party and I was really konked by the time the day was over. This morning we worked on a TV interview, and then I took the plane back to L. A.

AT 100-4953

"In time for a big luncheon meeting which was just fine. I met a woman there who had cut my hair years ago when I was in L. A. and after the meeting we went to a friend's home, and she gave me a very nice haircut.

"I got your last two letters from WIDGE when she picked me up, and I was very sad to hear of all of the not good things which you are experiencing, my love. I'm sorry you are so grumpy, not for me, but because it makes you feel not good in yourself. It was too bad you did not get too much enjoyment out of your tennis matches.

"I'm writing this now as we are driving back out to the beach to see some people and deliver a borrowed station wagon which WIDGE and ENID used for the moving back. Good morning, my love, it's now 10:20 and for the first time in a long while, I slept late this morning. MARKS is staying with a friend who has 2 boys, and a pool, so he's fine.

"I've been re-reading your last letters this morning (I'm alone in a very pleasant home, and again I'm disturbed by your rash and your teeth problems. I hope, as I said before, that all will be well, and I'm glad you tell me that there is not too much cause for worry.

"So, finally, after all these years, you have the McLACHLIN book. It should be absorbing to tackle the 100 problems presented. I'm afraid that I won't have a chance to read the FROMM book for quite a while, but I'll leave it in mind.

"I do think I operate somewhat along the lines of conservation of psychic energy, and it may be that you have struck up on a chord which explains some of the differences in attitude we have had from time to time. There have been instances where you have suggested to me

"that a real exploration of a situation would result in more clarity, and I have felt sufficiently aware of the psychic drains (to no avail) inherent, so that I have not wanted more clarity.

"MARKS take the surf much better than I do because he is much faster in movement and can ride the waves. Also he has no objections to getting sloughed around in the sandy water in a prone position, and I don't care for it. He has been taking pictures and he did have a chance to talk to our photographer friend in S. F.

"I see when I read your words about my writing frequency, I misunderstood you and I felt you were really calling me to task, but you are doing nothing of the sort. I guess I still carry over from the time when the omission of a letter was most traumatic. I shall be more relaxed and know that you have much much maturity in this direction.

"Yes, Rev. McCORMACK came with his wife to our big dinner in S. F. which is not exactly the same as having had dinner with him. As I told you before, I don't feel I will be able to make the trip to Mexico at this time, and I have another idea about it which may work out better.

"I got the govt's brochure on the parole board's composition and rules and it is most interesting. Have you every had access or do you know the almost unlimited discretion which applies? My schedule here is pretty full so that I don't know how much time I'll be able to spend at the beaches, but we'll see. I just talked to BETTY who has just returned from Mexico and we'll be getting together in the next couple of days. MARKS will stay there for a while.

"Most important of all and everything, be well, my love, and hold me very close, and know that I love thee with all my heart. Your HELEN, all time.

Sept. 11, 1959 #94
Friday, 11:55 A.M.

My own very dearest Morty,

It's a hot, hot day here as was yesterday. This morning we got a very exciting letter from E.I. saying that Steve Allen had ordered 100 copies of our reprint from the Y magazine which has the statement by Dr. Paul Lehman entitled, "Morton Sobell, Symbol of the Christian's concern for Justice". I had called his secretary that very morning to try to arrange an appointment because we knew of his previous interest, and I'm to call back Monday when Steve Allen will be back in town. In addition, we had a very fine meeting with some of the representatives of the Y yesterday morning.

Marko and I picked up our glasses in the afternoon, and Marko is very fond of his. I don't quite understand why although there are many speculative which seem plausible. He looks fine in his, and mine are not unattractive either, although that is not too important a factor. I'm wearing them at the moment. Maybe they will help in overcoming some of the fatigue I feel sometimes. You know a very good thing happened in your state. On Aug. 28, Mrs. Ingraham and her two sons were permitted to go home. It was a very lightening thing to read about. I do believe that there is almost a physical reaction to situations like that one which are very draining.

Schedule-wise I'll be leaving L.A. for Phoenix on the 17th, and I will probably leave Marko here and come back to pick him up on the 20th because I is a lot easier to get from L.A. to N.Y. then from Phoenix. Also, a very nice thing has happened here in that the friend which whom I am staying has just become engaged, and is getting married on the 20th. The both of them met at a Sobell party initially, got to know each other washing dishes until 4 in the morning at another party for us, and now, while I have been staying here have decided to get married. Part of their reason for getting married is that they have pledged to raise $100 by Dec. 1, and they figured they could get a lot of people to come to the wedding reception and contribute instead of bringing presents. That sounds a little flip, but it really is a very nice thing and both Paul and Sylvia are wonderful people. Last night we were celebrating the announcement of the engagement, and wife, of course, brought champagne, and during the afternoon, we had gone to Olvera Street which is a reconstruction of the original Mexican settlement of Los Angeles, and we bought egg shells which were filled with confetti, and we broke them over the happy couple. The room is still full of confetti, but Sylvia says she's going to leave it here until after the wedding.

After all this we went to a Japanese restaurant, and we ate suki-yaki and teri-yaki in a little room where we sat on seats of the floor, and had to take off our shoes before entering (I thought of your endorsement of this practice it was very novel and interesting to see the suki-yaki cooked before your eyes and to have the waitresses wearing their authentic costumes. The food too delicious, although the whole thing has a very other-worldly quality so the Marko asked me when he woke up this morning, did we really have a dinner on last night, or was that just a dream I had. This morning he is over with Alice's kid who is about 14, and he is an electronics enthusiast who is all fixing radios and setting up gadgets of his own. Pretty soon now, we will be picked up by Betty who will take us to lunch with Ida and Joe, and then later, Widge will pick me up. It's a horribly scorching day today, and I probably will not get too much done today. I have no meeting tonight. The meeting on Wednesday night was not too inspiring, but it's one more under the belt, so there it is.

Tomorrow is a big dinner, and then afterwards I have an appointment with John Wesley, and we should be able to get some things worked out. I'll be there: a most loving farewell, my own dearest Morty. I hope you continue to be in good health, and that you can vary your routine enough so that it does not become too oppressive. (That's pretty drastic, skipping meals, no? Well, I've gained 3 or 4 lbs. I think. I'll probably go back down when I back.) I love thee with all my heart. Your wife, Helen, all time, H.

Enclosed are 2 pictures, with love.

PREFACE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains on page 60, the following concerning the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg case:

- "1. Following the execution of atomic spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg in June 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon Morton Sobell', the Rosenbergs' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case--a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States--was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October 1953 and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case.' National headquarters remained at 1050 6th Avenue, New York City. Co-chairmen of the newest organization were Daniel Marshall and Joseph Brainin.

(Committee on Un-American Activities Report,

'Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell,' August 25, 1956, pp. 118 and 120; also cited in Annual Report for 1955, House Report 1648, January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956, p. 30.)"

[REDACTED] made available material received with the return address 1009 Cumberland Avenue, Syracuse, New York, and postmarked February 27, 1958, which contained a tabloid newspaper entitled "That Justice Shall Be Done, A Newspaper To Secure Justice In the Case of Morton Sobell," published February, 1958, by the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, which lists the following:

OFFICERS OF THE SYRACUSE SOBELL COMMITTEE

On March 2, 1959, Confidential Informant [REDACTED] b-2 furnished a letter headed "Syracuse Sobell Committee," dated February, 1959, addressed "Dear Friend;" which was signed
LILLIAN E. REINER, Mrs. HOWARD L. REINER, Chairman, 1009
Cumberland Avenue, Syracuse 10, New York.

Confidential Informant AL [REDACTED] b-2 advised on March 11, 1951, that LILLIAN REINER was not known as a member of the Communist Party at that time, but as Chairman of the American Labor Party (see Appendix), was closely associated with Communist Party members.

The Communist Party (CP), USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States as coming within the purview of Executive Order 10450.

[REDACTED] b1
Confidential Informant [REDACTED] b-2 advised on December 5, 1952, that JANE ANDERSON was a long-time CP member at Syracuse,
New York, as of that date.

PROGRAM OF THE SYRACUSE SOBELL COMMITTEE

AL 100-13260

On July 10, 1959, [REDACTED] furnished an envelope to [REDACTED] postmarked at Syracuse, New York, on July 9, 1959, with the return address 1009 Cumberland Avenue, Syracuse 10, New York. This envelope had not been opened by [REDACTED] because he stated he was aware that it contained information regarding the MORTON SOBELL case from having previously received information regarding the case. The envelope, when opened in his presence, and at his request, contained a mimeographed letter on the stationery of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, 940 Broadway, New York 10, New York, with the mimeographed subheading of Syracuse Sobell Committee, 1009 Cumberland Avenue. b7D

The mimeographed message contained in this letter is as follows:

"This is an invitation to join the growing number of people who are concerning themselves in the case of Morton Sobell.

"The Syracuse Sobell Committee has during the past five years carried on various activities including several mailings which reached thousands and resulted in more and more Syracusans becoming aware of the strong possibility that a gross miscarriage of justice may have taken place. Hundreds have written letters and signed petitions asking for Presidential clemency or a new trial. Six Syracuse clergymen signed the new 'Appeal to the President.' (See page 4 of the tabloid.)

"A big meeting on behalf of Morton Sobell held in New York City on June 19 was chaired by Prof. Thomas Emerson of Yale Law School. At this meeting Prof. Murray Branch, theologian at Morehouse College in Atlanta said in part: 'I am interested in the Morton Sobell Case because what has happened and is happening to Sobell appears to be another manifestation of tyranny. Much of human history has been the record of one tyranny after another over the spirit of man. The Sobell episode involves a coalescence of circumstances - hysteria, ambition, scape-goating, jealousy, vindictiveness, and now apparently a false pride concerning the nation's honor and fear lest our country's professed love for justice and human dignity be revealed to have been in that time of crisis

"only a mockery. Otherwise it is difficult to understand why a new trial has not been granted. Is Sobell destined to go down in history as the luckless burden-bearer for a nation's pride?"

"At the same meeting, Dr. Horace Kallen, research professor of Philosophy at the New School for Social Research, said: 'I am here as an act of conscience, to make a statement of conscience as an American citizen very deeply concerned with what is the most essential character of the American Ideal and the American program, involving all that we mean by the Bill of Rights, and involving all that we mean by the endeavor to secure equal justice for all people regardless of their associations and connections.'

"As more and more voices are raised in the call for justice, freedom for Morton Sobell can become a reality in the near future. The task is still a difficult one. Support and funds are needed. Please write to the President and to your Congressmen. Send what money you can to help."

It is noted that this letter also enclosed a tabloid newspaper entitled, "TODAY'S VERDICT IN THE CASE OF MORTON SOBELL," July, 1959 edition, published by the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell. On page 4 of this tabloid are listed numerous committees for MORTON SOBELL including the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, 940 Broadway, New York City, New York; phone AL 4-9983, and the Syracuse Sobell Committee, 1009 Cumberland Avenue, Syracuse, New York, phone Granite 2-2406.

LITERATURE SENT OUT BY THE SYRACUSE SOBELL COMMITTEE

1. A letter to Mrs. SOBELL dated August 25, 1958, signed CARLETON BEALS.

This mimeographed letter is headed "TEXT OF STATEMENT ON THE MORTON SOBELL CASE BY CARLETON BEALS, author, lecturer, authority on Mexico and the Caribbean area, and former consultant to the U.S. government on Mexican affairs. Mr. Beals calls Sobell's conviction a 'brazen denial of elementary rights' and 'so absurd it is incredible' in the following letter to Mrs. Morton Sobell."

"August 25, 1958

"Dear Mrs. Sobell:

"Thank you for sending me the transcript of the 'conspiracy' trial which resulted in your husband being sentenced to thirty years in prison and the transcript of the arguments on appeal.

"I have read every word of the 1715 pages with care. Only a relatively few pages deal with testimony concerning Sobell, and they contain the testimony of only one witness, Max Elitcher. Otherwise no evidence whatever was presented against your husband.

"Another brief section deals with the trip of Sobell and his wife and two children to Mexico, in an effort to prove that he was fleeing from justice.

"The indictment itself contains not one mention of overt acts by Sobell as is required by law. His attorneys were forced to enter the courtroom wholly unprepared, almost as spectators, without any knowledge of the specific charges or what evidence they might have to refute.

"As a result the prosecution, by distortion, falsification and suppression, was able to give his trip to Mexico the appearance of flight. There is no doubt Sobell was laboring under considerable fear, but even had he fled to Mexico illegally, which he did not, this under law does not constitute guilt of any crime. Thus it was not brought out at the trial:

- (1) That he went to Mexico under his own name and reported to American authorities before leaving.
- (2) That he was not under indictment and was not charged with any crime when he left, only after he returned.
- (3) That he had gone legally to Mexico. In court it was stated that he had no visa, which was technically correct, thus implying he had entered Mexico illegally. Actually he had a legal tourist card, all that is required, and went through the Mexican immigration offices and customs at the border in the usual legal manner.
- (4) That he was never deported from Mexico, although an American immigration official presented evidence, wholly erroneous, to that effect.
- (5) That actually he was kidnapped with the connivance of U.S. Federal agents, was brutally beaten until unconscious, that he was taken to the border in violation of Mexican and U.S. laws and treaties.
- (6) That he was taken across the border and spirited across in the dead of night, his abductors being joined by prearrangement by a Federal Marshall. That his entire family was similarly kidnapped and whisked across the border at night.
- (7) That the act was protested by the head of Mexican Immigration.
- (8) That investigations by the Mexican Consul in Laredo confirmed these criminal acts.
- (9) That the Mexican Department of Immigration and the Department of Gobernacion both provided documentary evidence, not presented at the trial, that Sobell had never been deported.

"The single witness produced by the State against Sobell, Max Elitcher, was a self-confessed 'perjurer' and 'liar'. At various times he had also been under psychoanalytical treatment.

"During his testimony only two sentences remotely suggest, and these are purely hearsay, that Sobell had any connection with any alleged conspiracy. Also, Elitcher testified that one evening he accompanied Sobell on a ten minute ride to the vicinity of the accused Julius Rosenberg's New York apartment to deliver a can (contents unknown) presumably to Rosenberg. No direct evidence, either oral or material, was given at the trial that Sobell even knew any atomic secrets, or that he gave any atomic or any other secrets to Rosenberg or anybody else. His crime, as presented at the trial, seemed to consist of having been possibly a Communist and fellow-traveler, that he had been a fellow engineering student at New York City College, that over a period of ten years he had seen Rosenberg half a dozen times. He knew none of the others involved in the trial and no other witness except Elitcher. His name was not mentioned by any other witness.

"In short, no oral, material or even remotely circumstantial evidence was ever presented in court to warrant his conviction or his sentencing. It is so absurd it is incredible. I know of no other instance of miscarriage of justice, or more brazen denial of elementary human rights, in the history of jurisprudence in this or any other country.

"Frankly, and this may sound harsh to you given your personal interest in the matter, I started reading this transcript with the hope that I would discover evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, that he was guilty, for I was anxious to preserve my illusions concerning the noble processes of American justice.

"Sincerely yours,

"s/ Carleton Beals

"P.S. - You are free to use this letter and my previous letter in any way you see fit."

2. A mimeographed statement headed Whitcomb Hotel, San Francisco, California, dated March 13, 1959, entitled, "ALCATRAZ WAS MY PARISH."

AL 100-13260

"Excerpts from remarks made by Rev. Peter McCormack at a dinner given in his honor. Reverend McCormack was Protestant chaplain at Alcatraz during Morton Sobell's imprisonment there.

'First, the man, Morton Sobell: There are certain elements that go into the making of character - first of all there is heredity, then there is environment and finally personal response. The first two we cannot completely control, but whether we accept responsibility involves many things. We sometimes say of the one who appears to have made a success of life, 'Oh, he had all the breaks'. Well, that cannot be said of Morton Sobell. True, he was born into a fine family, he inherited those qualities that make for fine manhood, honor, integrity, devotion, loyalty. If you met the man I am sure you would recognize the healthy mindedness of the man; proud of his inheritance, of home, country, of the opportunity he had as a loyal American Citizen - or to express it in the words of another, 'Morton achieved through the years of his young manhood a high degree of unity within himself'.

'It was belief in this fact that led me to conclude he was utterly incapable of doing the thing of which he was charged and like other great souls down through history, he suffers punishment, 'the just for the unjust'. Many a time a man may act, as we say 'out of character' - but to know Morton, you cannot charge him with that. Falsely accused, cruelly treated, ~~sentenced on the testimony of a self-confessed perjurer, this~~ man of fine character and brilliant mind still suffers within prison walls.

'During the years we were intimate in Alcatraz, Morton maintained an even temperament. Though he was a man of fine intellect, on a level far above most of his fellow prisoners, yet he never assumed a 'high brow' attitude.

'In the discussion periods I made provision for at the Chapel services, he always held back giving others a chance to express themselves. In our private discussions I found him a sharp, intellectual adversary. With his scientific mind he had to probe deep into every subject. I had to bow to his findings on scientific matters, but he, with perfect candor would concede to my findings in the fields of philosophy and religion. These discussions afforded Morton some intellectual stimulus that he could not find in his association with others.

"As I visited among the men, I found most of them living self-focused lives, at times exploding emotionally, depending on their circumstances, few have any sense of humor, all of this is crushed out of them by their environment, but Morton was not that type. Although keenly sensitive to his environment, at times overborne with anxiety for his family, his sense of humor never left him. He genuinely identified himself with the other men, sharing their problems, encouraging them with the thought that life could yet be beautiful and worth-while.

'As I thought of the terrible thirty year sentence hanging over him, I marvelled at his fortitude - true he had his moments of depression, but he was never 'sorry for himself', but rather for those who had so unjustly brought him into those circumstances and for his family, suffering because of his incarceration. I say he had his depressed moments, but he was by no means a depressed man; he exemplified a statement I found in one of Ian MacLaren's books where he said: 'Let us be kind to one another for most of us are fighting a hard battle.' To sum up my feelings about Morton, I want you to think of him as a man with profound convictions, a profound respect for the thinking of others, and for the rights of others, his loyalty and devotion to the best things in life, his reverence and respect for sacred things, these made him a man to be admired. 'Ecco Homo' - Behold the Man - in his present humiliation - but we believe through the efforts of tens of thousands, his humiliation will be changed to vindication.

'.....A few words about Alcatraz...Who are these men? (at Alcatraz - ed.) Who are they? They are men just like you and me. Do you recall the words of Sam Foss in his poem: 'The House by the Side of the Road?' He says, 'Let me sit in the house by the side of the road, where the race of men go by, men who are good, men who are bad, as good and as bad as I.' That describes the men at Alcatraz. I would like to rid your mind of the accepted idea that these men are worthless, a menace to society, it is not so.

'As I came to know the men, talked with them, walked about the yard with them, stood at their cell doors and listened to their story, then as I checked their records with the story they told, I found many of them to be victims of mistaken judgement, victims of a system that makes it hard for a man, having once "made a mistake to make a come-back. I have many friends in Alcatraz...As time passed, many secrets were revealed and ultimately the Chaplain finds himself so entwined in the life of the men that he must suffer with and for his flock. The Chaplain, if he is wise must: 'Gently scan his brother man', and realize that 'to step aside is human'.

'....I recall the first time I entered the prison, I seemed to hear a voice from the distant past saying: 'Abandon all hope all ye who enter here'. If you want to see a group of hopeless, frustrated, despairing, forgotten men, visit Alcatraz...If you had a 62 year sentence hanging over you, shut up in isolation - what would you do?

'....One time when I dared to plead a prisoner's case I was told by an administrative officer: 'Chaplain, these men are criminals, they always have been criminals, they always will be criminals and we treat them as such'. Do you wonder that some of the men try to end it all by committing suicide?

'....I have been asked many times if a man was ever rehabilitated in Alcatraz? My answer is - if there ever has been such a man it is certainly not BECAUSE of the program of rehabilitation there, it is rather 'IN SPITE OF IT'.

'This word in closing, I was asked recently why I have taken such an interest in Morton Sobell, when there were so many men under my care. My answer is because of my intimate acquaintance with Mr. Sobell, and because of my study of the case from the very beginning...when there was so 'much sound and fury, signifying nothing.'I secured a transcript of the court record - 1715 pages in all, and after careful study and knowing the man, I feel satisfied in my own mind, that Morton is innocent, a victim of perjury, politics, and prejudice. So there is a sense of urgency impelling me 'to speak what I do know and testify of the things I have seen.' To quote a great social leader of a past generation, I say: 'While there is a lower class, I am in it; while there is a criminal class I am of it; while there is a soul in prison, I am not free.'

'I have found that 'decent boldness ever meets with friends'."

"Some years ago during the Rosenberg trial I made a political speech in the neighborhood of the University of Chicago in connection with a representative from our district. Afterwards a lady came and asked to visit me at my office. When she appeared the next day I learned it was about the Rosenberg case and that she thought that the sentences were extreme. I shrugged the matter off as quickly as possible and went on with my work. A few days later I was asked to make a statement in connection with the case and I said no because I knew nothing about it. A few days later a transcript of the records of the case was on my desk. I spent a week reading this. Half way through, I was sure they were guilty. After completing the reading I believe this case was a travesty of justice, that the evidence was doubtful and possibly perjured. I doubt that the Rosenbergs had anything to do with espionage and I think the evidence against Morton Sobell was exceedingly flimsy. In my opinion the judge was prejudiced and showed it during the course of the trial. I do not like to accept the uncorroborated evidence of accomplices and people who had admitted that they had committed perjury in the past. I have been assured by outstanding authorities who saw the material impounded by the court that it would be valuable to enemies of the United States. Greenglass and Harry Gold say they transmitted this. Whether valuable or not it was a violation of the espionage act for which they should have been punished. What was established in my mind was that Rosenberg and Sobell had nothing to do with it.

"I do not know the people of this case and have never met them. In the trial it appeared that they had very leftish

"views, a point of view with which I do not sympathize, but I am not interested in the politics of this case. I am interested in justice as administered in this country regardless of the political views that people may have.

"The Rosenberg trial occurred at the height of the McCarthy hysteria and the atmosphere that existed at that time. I do not believe that justice worthy of the name of the United States could have been secured for these people. I doubt if any member of the jury who voted for acquittal could have returned to his community and lead a normal existence.

"I am appearing at the meeting on the Sobell case to state publicly that these are my views."

I. BACKGROUND

The National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case is cited by the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared by the Committee on Un-American Activities, dated January 2, 1957, as follows:

- "1. Following the execution of atomic spies Ethel and Julius Rosenberg in June, 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon Morton Sobell,' the Rosenbergs' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case.' National headquarters remained at 1050 6th Avenue, New York City. Co-chairmen of the newest organization were DANIEL MARSHALL and JOSEPH BRAININ.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 'Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell,' August 25, 1956, pp. 118 and 120; also cited in Annual Report for 1955, House Report 1648, January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956, p. 30.)"

C SOBELL MEETING JUNE 4, 1959

BLOOM* stated on that date "there is a gathering of some people at SYLVIA BERNSTEIN's* on Thursday and

(SAs of the FBI) observed the following individuals present at the residence of AL* and SYLVIA* BERNSTEIN,

SAs of the FBI observed that HELEN SOBELL* departed the above residence at 11:53 p.m. June 4, 1959, and left the area in a red Chevrolet convertible bearing Pennsylvania license M14 457 being driven by an unknown white female who left the BERNSTEIN residence with SOBELL.

Miss ALEXANDER said that she is currently traveling around the United States, speaking before various groups interested in obtaining the release from prison of MORTON SOBELL. ALEXANDER said that the public opinion "climate" is now changing and the time is right for bringing pressure, in the form of letters, to the President of the United States and U.S. Congressmen.

ALEXANDER talked about the weaknesses in the Sobell trial. She said that SOBELL was the only one who would not cooperate with the Government and that is why he was placed on trial along with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG. She said the United States Government connived with the Mexican Government in having SOBELL deported from Mexico. She mentioned KLAUS FUCHS and compared his light prison sentence to the one SOBELL is serving. She said that MAX ELITCHER is a source of weakness to the Government's case in that he had a criminal record which was not brought out at the trial.

ALEXANDER had with her copies of the verbatim transcript of SOBELL's trial, consisting of eight volumes, which could be purchased for six dollars. She also had copies of the July, 1959, issue of "Today's Verdict," self-identified as published by the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell

VIII LITERATURE DISTRIBUTION

On April 7, 1959, [REDACTED] made available the ⁶² following literature which was available at the Sobell Committee meeting held on April 4, 1959, at the home of ETHEL WEICHBROD*, 8321 Tabona Drive, Silver Spring, Maryland:

1. "Memorandum to the Subcommittee on American Republics Affairs, Foreign Relations Committee, U.S. Senate, Washington, D. C., submitted in behalf of Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, 940 Broadway, New York City 10, New York."

The above memorandum has been previously described in this report.

2. Printed sheet dealing with "Text of Statement on the Morton Sobell Case by CARLETON BEALS, author, lecturer, authority on Mexicans in the Caribbean area, and former consultant to the United States Government on Mexican affairs. Mr. BEALS calls SOBELL's conviction a 'brazen denial of elementary rights' and 'so absurd it is incredible' in the following letter to Mrs. MORTON SOBELL."

3. Leaflet entitled, "Judge KAUFMAN Fails to Get Higher Court Appointment." This leaflet in part states as follows:

"The fact that the Justice Department and the White House by-passed Judge IRVING KAUFMAN, who was scheduled to have received the appointment, is a hopeful sign that we are moving away from the hysteria symbolized by the Judge's sentences against the ROSENBERGS and MORTON SOBELL, and that the atmosphere in Washington for winning MORTON SOBELL's freedom is improving."

4. Leaflet entitled, "Comments by Dr. HAROLD C. UREY at the Dinner Honoring Reverend PETER MC CORMACK on March 13, 1959, at the Whitcomb Hotel in San Francisco, California." This leaflet in part states as follows:

"The ROSENBERG trial occurred at the height of the MC CARTHY hysteria and the atmosphere that existed at that time. I do not believe that justice worthy of the name of the United States could have been secured for these people. I doubt that any member of the jury who voted for acquittal could have returned to his community and led a normal existence."

5. Memorandum dated March 13, 1959, entitled, "Alcatraz Was My Parish" which contains excerpts from remarks made by Reverend PETER MC CORMACK at a dinner given in his honor. The memorandum points out that Reverend MC CORMACK was Protestant Chaplain at Alcatraz during MORTON SOBELL's imprisonment there. This memorandum in part is as follows:

"This word in closing, I was asked recently why I have taken such an interest in MORTON SOBELL, when there was so many men under my care. My answer is because of my intimate acquaintance with Mr. SOBELL, and because of my study of the case from the very beginning... when there was so much 'sound and fury, signifying nothing'.... I secured a transcript of the court record - 1715 pages in all, and after careful study and knowing the man, I feel satisfied in my own mind, that MORTON is innocent, a victim of perjury, politics and prejudice. So there is a sense of urgency impelling me 'to speak what I, do know and testify of the things I have seen.' To a good social leader of the past generation, I say; 'while there is a lower class, I am in it; while there is a criminal class, I am of it; while there is a soul in prison, I am not free.' "

● To Free Morton Sobell

June 19

Heartened, this sixth anniversary of the fateful Friday on which Ethel and Julius Rosenberg were executed, by the lofty spirit and broadly representative speakers at the Webster Hall meeting arranged by the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell (910 Broadway, N. Y. 101). As Helen Sobell said in her steaming address, "this year marks the turning point" after "nine long years against the tide." Taking the Chair, Prof. Thomas I. Emerson (Yale Law School) declared he shared "the growing conviction that injustice has been done" to Sobell. Dr. Murray Branch, professor of religion at Morehouse College, Atlanta, impressively asserted that one reason for his interest in the case was that, as a Negro, he knew "that members of a minority group, when sitting in judgment on members of their own group, are likely to lean over backwards." The audience of 600 listened intently as the 76 year old Dr. Horace M. Kallen (author, philosopher, Jewish ideologist, member of the executive committees of the World Jewish Congress and the American Association for Jewish Education, professor at the New School for Social Research) ~~solidly but firmly explained that, after~~ years of avoiding the issue, he was now "here as an act of conscience," that he accepted "the telling statements by Prof. Branch," that "this kind of injustice is a betrayal of the country to the world," that Rev. Peter McCormack, former Alcatraz chaplain, and he were forming a Committee of Independent Citizens to review the case and press for Sobell's freedom. The audience gave $1826.62 for that end.

Synopsis:

"WIDGE" NEWMAN, organizer of instant committee in Los Angeles, visits Portland area as part of West Coast tour to rekindle interest in SOBELL case. Mrs. ROSE LEOPOLD reportedly re-named chairman of Portland committee.

[REDACTED] Mrs. HELEN SOBELL also visits Portland area. Makes several appearances on husband's behalf. b1

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

FD 100-9004

DETAILS:

On April 16, 1959, Portland Confidential Informant T-1 advised that a meeting at which the principal speaker was IRMA VIVIAN "WIDGE" NEWMAN of Los Angeles, California, was the principal speaker, was held on April 10, 1959, at the home of Mrs. ROSE LEOPOLD, 2033 S.E. Ash, Portland.

Portland Confidential Informant T-2 has identified Mrs. NEWMAN as the organizer of the Committee to Secure Justice for MORTON SOBELL in Los Angeles.

According to T-1, Mrs. NEWMAN's appearance in Portland was part of a tour that she was making of the West Coast in an effort to rekindle interest in the MORTON SOBELL case. She arrived in Portland on April 9, 1959, and while in Portland stayed at the LEOPOLD home.

Mrs. NEWMAN spoke at the above meeting, stating that she had attended a workshop meeting in New York, and it had been decided that she should make the West Coast tour to step up interest in the Sobell matter. She pointed out that SOBELL had been transferred from Alcatraz to the Federal Penitentiary at Atlanta, and that his chances for parole were now apparently brighter. She noted that SOBELL has more privileges than ever before. She added that all possible legal steps had been considered, and that it was felt that SOBELL's parole was the best goal.

Mrs. NEWMAN said that she was chairman of a Sobell Committee in California, and that she had started this tour in Vancouver, B. C. She claimed that the people in Canada were doing more in the Sobell matter than those in the Northwest, and seemed to know more about the case. She went on to say that France and Great Britain are interested in the legal angle of the Sobell case, and that the Mexican government is also most interested.

Mrs. NEWMAN further stated that the proper approach is through ministers, attorneys, and others in public life. She emphasized the ministers particularly, since they are interested in the case from a humanitarian point of view. She exhibited a petition which allegedly bore the names of many prominent ministers.

PD 100-9004

Mrs. NEWMAN said that she had arrived in Portland the previous day, and since that time had been endeavoring to make contacts in Portland. She was enthusiastic over an editorial which had appeared in the April 5, 1959, issue of The Oregonian, Portland daily newspaper, which had indicated that there might be some question as to the guilt of SOBELL. Mrs. NEWMAN also stated that a lack of funds is the biggest problem in the present campaign, and in her contacts she had been endeavoring to get contributions. So far, however, she had received mostly promises.

T-1 identified Mrs. ROSE LEOPOLD as the individual who had been the leader of the Sobell Committee in Portland over the years, and in fact, had been virtually a one-man committee. Mrs. LEOPOLD spoke at the above April 10, 1959, meeting, repeating in general what Mrs. NEWMAN had said. She added that an effort had been made on the previous date to reactivate the Portland committee, and that she was to continue as chairman. The secretary, she said, is to be Mrs. ELBERTA "BETTY" WOLLAM. Mrs. NEWMAN also indicated that the work of the committee in Portland would consist principally of making contacts for contributions and the distribution of literature.

Mrs. WOLLAM is known to T-1 to be a current active leader of the Communist Party in Portland.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Portland Confidential Informant T-3 on April 16, 1959, also told of the above meeting on April 10, 1959. [REDACTED] said that approximately 18 persons were present at this fund raising affair. Among them were [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

In her remarks, according to T-3, Mrs. NEWMAN declared that her purpose for visiting Portland was to raise funds for the Sobell Committee. She told of having visited Vancouver, B.C., Seattle, and Tacoma, Washington, before coming to Portland. She claimed that the people in Vancouver had raised $250, and that the response in Seattle also had been good. She added that what was needed was money, and she asked for contributions beginning with $25, and ending with the loose change which those present might have in their pockets. [REDACTED] b

Mrs. SOBELL arrived in Portland in the latter part of July and was given considerable publicity in the Portland press. The July 30, 1959, issue of The Oregonian, Portland daily newspaper, carried an interview of Mrs. SOBELL, and stated that she had spoken at a forum type luncheon meeting on July 29, 1959. According to the article, she was to meet thereafter with home groups until August 2, 1959, when she would go on to California. The account further stated that while in Portland, Mrs. SOBELL was staying with Mrs. LEOPOLD.

An interview also was carried in the July 29, 1959, issue of The Oregon Journal, also a Portland daily newspaper. This article told of her appearance at the July 29 luncheon, and said that she was to present her case thereafter in a series of private meetings. The article also said that Mrs. SOBELL is now employed by the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, which is supported by private contributions. It added that the committee is trying to enlist public support for an appeal to President EISENHOWER to commute SOBELL's sentence, and also to urge Congress to step into the case.

She said that Mrs. SOBELL told of the trial and conviction of her husband, and distributed a leaflet purporting to reflect endorsement by persons of prominence, including members of the clergy. [REDACTED] said that this luncheon was sponsored by no organized group. b7D

Similar information concerning this luncheon meeting was provided on July 30, 1959, [REDACTED] b7D

A second reception for Mrs. SOBELL was held on July 31, 1959, at the home of Mrs. LEOPOLD, with about 28 persons present. Information on this affair was provided on August 4, 1959, by T-6, who said that Mrs. Sobell again outlined her husband's case [REDACTED] b70 and had those in attendance write postcards asking for SOBELL's freedom.

It might be noted that on August 6, 1959, Portland Confidential Informant T-9 said that invitations had been sent out for this July 31 reception, and that these invitations contained a return envelope addressed to Mrs. LEOPOLD, and a note saying that if the recipients could not attend, please send some "green" representative.

Information on the July 31, 1959, reception also was provided on August 6, 1959, by T-5, and on September 1, 1959, by T-3.

A third function for Mrs. SOBELL, a dinner meeting was held on August 1, 1959, at the home of MORRIS DRAGOON, 9922 S.W. 57th Avenue, Portland, according to information provided on August 3, 1959, by Portland Confidential Informant T-10. Approximately 46 persons were present [REDACTED] Mrs. SOBELL made b70 the same plea and urged all present to get into some type of work which would assist in gaining freedom for her husband. She again asked all to write to the President and to their Congressmen.

MORRIS DRAGOON is known to T-10 to have been active in the Progressive Party of Oregon in the late 1940's and early 1950's. A characterization of the Progressive Party of Oregon is contained in the Appendix hereto.

PORTLAND CHAPTER, METHODIST FEDERATION FOR SOCIAL ACTION

OREGON CHAPTER, METHODIST FEDERATION FOR SOCIAL ACTION, and OREGON FEDERATION FOR SOCIAL ACTION, has been in existence since September 23, 1950, and consistently reflect a pro-Russian, pro-Communist line, and its leadership including its executive board is composed of former Communist Party members and others who are definitely sympathetic to the Communist Party.

The METHODIST FEDERATION FOR SOCIAL ACTION has been cited by the California Committee on Un-American Activities in its 1948 report as "among the more conspicuous fronts for Communist activity in the field of relief, assistance, and welfare work and dealing with the problems of the unemployed and underprivileged."

PROGRESSIVE PARTY OF OREGON

According to Portland Confidential Informants, the PROGRESSIVE PARTY OF OREGON was dominated by past and present COMMUNIST PARTY members throughout its existence from 1948 to April, 1954. The organization went out of existence in April, 1954.

AIMS AND METHODS

One attorneys for the Sobell case were seeking to reopen consideration of SOBELL's conviction on two grounds: a) that SOBELL had been denied a chance to show he was "kidnaped" from South America; and b) that his trial was, therefore, unjustified: He had been "kidnaped" from one country and tried in another. 67

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

Coordinated Greetings
to MORTON SOBELL

Associate Warden VIRGIL T. BRELAND, U. S. Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia, advised on March 26, 1959, that 59 form post cards from Wisconsin residents had been received at the Atlanta penitentiary addressed to MORTON SOBELL, Inmate 71342. They had been mailed to him during December, 1958, and January, 1959. In form the post cards were identical. The penitentiary, Warden BRELAND said, confiscated the cards in view of the fact that the correspondents were not on SOBELL's approved mailing list.

Milwaukee Lecture by

[REDACTED] b7D

Informant furnished a mimeographed leaflet advertising a talk to be given in Milwaukee's Jefferson Hall, 2617 West Fond du Lac Avenue, by Dr. ANNETTE T. RUBINSTEIN, under the sponsorship of the Milwaukee Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell. The leaflet stated that Dr. RUBINSTEIN's lecture, entitled "Freedom and Literature" would deal with SEAN O'CASEY, the "world's greatest living dramatist," author of "The Informer."

[REDACTED] b7D

[REDACTED] b7D

Dr. RUBINSTEIN's lecture was held on March 22, 1959, Sunday afternoon, at Jefferson Hall. About twenty-five persons heard her. She was introduced by WAYNE LEVERENZ.

Dr. RUBINSTEIN mentioned the Sobell case only briefly. That was when she compared SOBELL's mother with O'CASEY's mother or with the mother in one of O'CASEY's stories.

MI 100-11982

[REDACTED] b7D

ANNETTE RUBINSTEIN was presented by the Sobell Committee in a discussion of SHAWN O'CASEY's plays on March 22, 1959. Moderator of the discussion was JOHN GILMAN, who spoke of SOBELL's innocence and SOBELL's invention of a system of purification for the hydrogen bomb, the purification designed to eliminate Strontium 90 from the fallout.

RUBINSTEIN recited parts of O'CASEY's plays. She mentioned their social, political and propaganda significance. She emphasized that social reforms have always followed plays.

About thirty people attended the lecture. [REDACTED] b7D

[REDACTED] b7D

Rev. GAEDE's lecture was actually held May 18, 1959. About forty people attended the lecture.

Rev. GAEDE spoke of the perjured testimony at SOBELL's trial. He mentioned that occasionally, despite America's fine system of justice, capital punishment had been meted out to the innocent. He alluded to the "kidnaping" from Mexico of MORTON SOBELL. He also made reference to the various visits MORTON SOBELL had received at the penitentiary from the FBI, visits in which his cooperation was sought in implied return for his possible reunion with his wife and family. Rev. GAEDE pointed out, however, that SOBELL could not "cooperate" because really he did not know anything.

following article:

"A West Coast clergyman and co-founder of a united clergymen's appeal in behalf of atom spy Morton Sobell reviewed reasons why 'an uneasy public' felt the convicted espionage agent's sentence should be commuted Monday night. The Rev. Erwin A. Gaede, Unitarian minister from Los Angeles addressed about 40 persons at a meeting sponsored by the public affairs committee of the First Unitarian Church, 1342 N. Astor St."

On May 14, 1959, a source advised that the Milwaukee Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell is one of the affiliated Committees of the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell

Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the "Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL," the ROSENBERGS' co-defendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953 and "Then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case." National headquarters remained at 1050 Sixth Avenue, New York City. Co-chairmen of the newest organization were DANIEL MARSHALL and JOSEPH BRAININ.
